Pasties & Pies

Legend has it the pasties were first enjoyed by the Cornish, and the solid ridge of pastry along the top was there so the coal miners could grab ahold and not worry about eating with dirty hands! We know your table manners are much refined. The legend continues that the family members would mark their initials on one corner of the pasty...ensuring they got their favorite filling. We serve ours with your choice of vegetable of the day, Darcy's slaw or simple mixed greens
